From the President

Hello Members!

We have made it past the grueling months of summer and look forward to the onset of Fall. While many of our challenges still exist as we prepare for a season of heating, air quality issues and continued Covid preparedness and protocols, we still take that proverbial "breather" as we gear up for the coming months.

I would like to take this time to thank all of you who had participated in the 42nd Annual MACC Golf Outing this past August and helped make it a continued success. We were glad to be able to make a donation to the Make-A-Wish foundation. We could not have done it without the help of all our dedicated sponsors, and we thank you for your support.

The heavily anticipated Passing the Torch event will be held at our upcoming Membership Meeting on October 10, 2020.

skies and a steady drizzle. We wondered if our long-anticipated golf outing would actually take place, but in true MACC spirit, we decided to move forward and proceed on schedule with the hope and expectation that the weather would clear, and all would be well!

“Even though the weather started out rainy in the morning, it cleared up as

Over 100 people registered for the big event, enjoying a full day of golf and a relaxing night of dining and fun. The

Language Written on a Check is Enforceable

Occasionally, I am asked about language written on a check which states something like “full enforceable and what happens if the language is crossed out.

balance. The rationale is that if debt or claim is in dispute, and a check is tendered in full payment payment.

certain language on the check in order to reserve their rights or by simply crossing out the text's of any and all claims.

In the event the payee writes on the check such language as “without prejudice” or “under protest” the ability to accept the check and pursue the remaining balance is also available to the payee. The key aspect in these types of disclaimers is the actions taken by the payee to preserve its rights to the remaining balance.
